GED PREPARATION FOR ADULTS

The high school equivalency diploma (GED)

Diana G. Berkowitz, ESL/GED Coordinator, PhD, holds a doctorate in Teaching English to Speakers of Other Languages (TESOL) from Columbia University and a Master of Education in Applied Linguistics from Teachers College. She has taught ESL at both the adult and college levels and has also trained teachers in TESOL methodology, linguistics and second language acquisition. She is presently the Director of the CUNY Language Immersion Program (CLIP) at Queensborough Community. She is a member of numerous professional and educational associations.

TESTING & PLACEMENT FOR ALL GED STUDENTS:

Monday, June 1 at 6-10 pm

Registrants will take a Placement Test to determine their readiness for a GED course. The test results will be available in time for the first class meeting for each section. Registrants' names will be posted outside of L-118P, along with their assigned course level and the building/room number where the class meets. BEX-198 PRE-M

The GED course helps to prepare adults take the High School Equivalency Exam within six months. Our highly qualified instructors will review and focus on the major subject areas of the test encompassing Mathematics, Science, Social Studies, Reading and Writing and provide in-class training for test-taking and time management strategies, and will help students to develop critical thinking skills and writing competence. Prerequisite: 7th grade or higher reading level. To qualify to take the GED exam, students must be either at least 19 years of age OR 18 years of age and their high school class must have already graduated before the date the GED exam is taken. The required text and calculator can be purchased at the Queensborough Bookstore.
