Non-members must conform to the usual requirements of parliamentary procedure; the Parliamentarian will interpret and enforce the rules which include that no non-member of the body may speak without the permission of the body.

Section 4. Officers

Article II. MEETINGS

Section 1.

The President shall preside over regular meetings of the Academic Senate, or, in the President’s absence, the chairperson of the Steering Committee shall preside. Should the date set for a regular meeting be a holiday or a day when Tuesday classes have not been scheduled by the University, the meeting shall be held on the Tuesday immediately following. Public notice of the time and place of any meeting that is scheduled a week or more in advance must be given to the news media and conspicuously posted in one or more designated public locations at least 72 hours before the meeting. The agenda of the special meeting shall be fixed five (5) days before the meeting. Additional business may be considered only by two-thirds (2/3) consent of those present.

(b) An Executive Session is not separate from an open meeting, but is a portion of an open meeting during which the public may be excluded. Subjects that may be discussed in an Executive Session relate to matters that are not likely to be discussed at a meeting of bodies such as college associations or a faculty senate. These include issues of public safety and law enforcement, proposed or pending litigation, collective bargaining, the medical, financial, credit or employment history of a particular person or corporations, or matters leading to the appointment, employment, promotion, demotion, discipline, suspension, dismissal or removal of a particular person or corporation, the preparation, grading or administration of examinations and the proposed acquisition, sale or lease of real property or the proposed acquisition, sale or exchange of securities. To close a meeting for executive session, a public body must take several steps. First, a motion must be made during an open meeting to enter into executive session. Second, the motion must identify the general area or areas of the subject(s) to be considered. Third, the motion must be carried by a majority vote of the total membership of the public body.

c. Exemptions from the Open Meetings Law. The Law does not apply to discussions concerning matters that might be made confidential under other provisions of state or federal law. Accordingly, disclosure or personally identifiable data regarding students must not take place in an open meeting, unless the consent of the students and/or their parents has been obtained.

Minutes of executive sessions must consist of a record or summary of the final action that was taken and the date and vote thereon; such minutes must be available to the public within one week from the date of the executive session. Attendance of members of the Academic Senate shall be recorded in the minutes.

Section 8. Record of Final Votes

The Freedom of Information Law requires that a public agency must maintain a record of the final vote of each member in every agency proceeding in which the member votes. In order to minimize delay, especially on uncontroversial matters, several motions may be grouped together for a single vote and/or the chair may seek unanimous consent of the members present. All senate votes will be recorded and the minutes will note those who vote in the negative or who abstain.

Article III. POWERS OF THE ACADEMIC SENATE
