1. Minutes of the March 7,2002 meeting were approved.
- 2.Review of The Draft of a resolution for the Academic Senate.
Discussion and changes to Current Draft

II a.) Changes. Discussion on requirement mandating a Writing intensive learning Communities during the first 24 credits, and possibility of exemption for curriculum that have writing intensive courses built into current courses. It was decided that no exemption would be given but that page 1 of the draft would be reworded to say that The Office of Academic Affairs under the supervision of the Curriculum committee of the Academic Senate ...would ensure that every student in each degree program can reasonably fulfill this (WI Learning Community ) requirement II b.) Changes Each Writing Intensive Learning Community will be so certified by the WID WAC sub committee as meeting Writing Intensive Requirements.
How the Desired end is to be Achieved B Changes The Curriculum Committee will recommend to the Senate for approval, criteria for WI learning communities. The Curriculum Committee will oversee development of learning Communities and will issue reports on the status of implementation to the Faculty.
3. Peter Grey will make the changes to the current draft and send the resolution to D.Liebman who will present it to the Curriculum Committee for approval.
4. Revision of the material will be distributed by P Grey
