RE: Reproduction Release Form

The WID/WAC Program collects a planning portfolio the first semester a faculty member participates in faculty development. These drafts of writing assignments may prove useful to assist faculty in future workshops. Any samples of student writing in response are welcome.

By signing below, you are expressly giving permission for us to reproduce any and all material(s) you are presenting to your students as well as any and all material(s) given to you by your students during the current semester in this course.

In order to preserve your anonymity, we guarantee to omit your name from your submission(s) as well as the names of your students.
