Reminder: Deadline Approaching.
Please Inform Your Students About these Opportunities

The KHRCA offers three internship programs each Fall and Spring semesters. Students are required to apply by the application deadline and submit all required materials. Interns meet with the program director for one hour a week for twelve weeks. There is a final presentation required for each internship program that connects directly to the subject matter covered. On completion of the program the intern will receive a stipend of $360. Internships are not only limited to students attending Queensborough Community College, but are also open to others who meet the program's eligibility criteria and time commitment.

Interested students should send their resume, letter of interest, and copy of their schedule to Marisa L. Berman, Assistant Director at MLBerman@qcc.cuny.edu. All three items must be received in order for your application to be considered.

The application deadline for the Spring Semester is:
Friday, February 12th, 2016.

EXPLORING THE HOLOCAUST

Fridays 12pm-1pm

Students selected to participate in this internship will meet weekly at the Holocaust Center to examine the impact World War II had on residents living in Europe's Jewish communities. Through readings, videos, group discussions, and presentations by local residents who lived in Europe at that time, students will gain a strong understanding of the Holocaust. Student interns will be trained to use this knowledge to conduct an intensive interview of local survivors and present his/her story to the other interns as well as members of the QCC community.

IDENTIFYING AND DEALING WITH HATE CRIMES IN OUR COMMUNITIES

Thursdays 9am-10am

Students selected to participate in this internship will meet weekly at the Holocaust Center to explore legislation dealing with hate crimes and meet with representatives of city and state agencies who deal with victims of hate crimes in assisting them in seeking justice. Agencies such as: the New York City Police Department Hate Crimes Unit, the Queens District Attorney's Office the LGBT Anti-Violence project, United Sikhs, and other such groups will participate in the project. Student interns will be trained as to the various legal steps taken by these agencies in determining if a hate crime has been committed and follow the prosecution of such a crime. Each intern will be required to visit two of the participating agencies for hand on experience.

ASIAN SOCIAL JUSTICE INTERNSHIP

Wednesdays 11am-12pm

Students selected to participate in this internship will meet weekly at the Holocaust Center to examine and discuss the impact of World War II on those residents living in occupied Asia, particularly the story of the Comfort Women. The program is led by a scholar specializing in gender issues in Korean history. Student interns will be trained to use this knowledge to conduct an intensive remote interview of survivors and present his/her story to the other interns and interested members of Queensborough Community College.
