

Dear Colleagues,

QCC is a self-governed institution. As such, we have a voice in important decisions. We invite you to participate in shared governance by applying to serve as a Faculty Member-at-Large Representative to the Academic Senate.

The Academic Senate meets once a month on Tuesday afternoon at 3 pm in M-136 during the semester. Senators are expected to attend meetings.

This year, thirteen (13) Faculty Members-at-Large positions are to be filled. The senators whose terms are expiring are:

Shele Bannon, Business
Barbara Blake-Campbell, Nursing
Anne Marie Bourbon, Foreign Languages
Regina Polizzotto-Cardaci, Nursing
Michael Cesarano, Speech & Theatre
JoAnne Chiung Chang, Music
Chong Jue, Biology
Maan (Jenny) Lin, Foreign Languages
Philip Pecorino, Social Sciences
Jane Poulsen, Social Sciences
Edward Volchok, Business
Patrick Wallach, Math & CS
Paul Weiss, Health Phys Ed. & Dance

Please consider running for these important positions.

In accordance with Senate Bylaws Article I, Section 2, an election must be held to fill these positions. The Process has two phases: nomination and election. To become a nominee for election as Faculty Member-at-Large Representative to the Academic Senate, a candidate must submit a petition to the Committee on Committees by 5:00PM, March 8, 2012.

Please find attached the nominating petition for the Academic Senate with instructions and eligibility criteria.

It is the responsibility of the applicant to ensure on-time delivery of the nomination petition via interoffice mail. Petitions received after the deadline cannot be considered.

With best regards,

Galatia (Tina) Iakovou
Chairperson, Committee on Committees
