Old Business: Mentoring of Faculty

New Business:

- CLTs presented their reasons for changes in the Governance Plan to permit them to vote for department Chairpersons. A discussion followed.
• Issues raised by the Faculty to be addressed immediately or later
  1. Abolition of standardized testing
  2. Ways to encourage a more globally intellectual curriculum
  3. Ways to encourage socially transformative pedagogy
  4. Parking and the impact of zoning on a parking garage
  5. Selection and duration of service of faculty mentors
  6. Criteria for tenure and promotion: more focus should be on teaching and either service or research
  7. Teaching load
  8. Student discipline
  9. Collaborate with PSC to support workload reduction
  10. Review release time for committee service

• Suggestions for Topics at future meetings of the Faculty
  1. High-impact strategies: why should faculty be involved?

Adjournment

Respectfully submitted,

Wilma Fletcher-Anthony

Secretary of the FEC
