

We are currently looking to hire for field based positions with the organization. Students with an interest in social justice, human rights, or communication skills would be ideal candidates.

We offer: Base pay of $15/ HR, growth potential, temporary and permanent positions, a warm and welcoming work environment, and the opportunity to work directly for the world's largest human rights organization.

I would very much appreciate it if you could forward the job opportunity below with your classes who may currently be getting out on break or graduating and looking for work.

Interested students should submit a short introduction and resume to amnestynycjobs@gmail.com
