The meeting was called to order at 3:15 p.m.

First order: Approval of the Minutes of the November 20th, 2008 committee meeting.

The following topics were reported and discussed at the February 25th, 2009 meeting:

- Ms. Ziomara Zamora reported that the QCC Club Fair was held on February 11th, 2009. It was very well attended by students.

- Ms. Zamora reported that there is a pamphlet that lists all of the QCC student clubs and there are new flyers about the student clubs. Information about the student clubs and student activities are on the QCC website.

- Ms. Zamora reported that all student clubs will be receiving budget information by email.

- Ms. Zamora reported that there will probably be no student club advisor luncheon this semester due to a conflict with a college wide meeting scheduled for the same time.

- New student clubs were discussed.
• Ms. Zamora reported on the college’s Black History Month activities. These activities were well attended, including the activities held on February 18th, 2009 at which there were games, prizes, and a give-away.

• Ms. Zamora discussed the upcoming events scheduled on campus for Women’s History Month. These include an open microphone event scheduled for March 17th, 2009 from 4:00-6:00 p.m. in the Student Union Building and a workshop presented by Ms. Constance Peluso (the Director of the Office of Career Services) on what to wear and how to dress for success for women students scheduled for March 25th, 2009 from 1:00-3:00 p.m.

• Ms. Zamora discussed the upcoming campus Job Fair scheduled for May 6th, 2009.

• Ms. Zamora discussed the upcoming campus wide event to promote “The Dream Act” tentatively scheduled for May 13th, 2009. It will include a rally to promote the passing of legislation on immigration.

• The upcoming elections for Student Government were discussed. They will be held after Spring Recess.

• The college’s Valentine’s Day Party held on February 19th, 2009 was discussed.

• Access to the Student Union Building and to Student Activities functions was discussed. Students must be matriculated to have access. The future possibility of the use of swipe cards to obtain access was discussed.

• The posting of rules regarding appropriate behavior at Student Activities functions was discussed.

• Student behavior and the use of inappropriate language on campus were discussed.

• Safety concerns on campus were discussed.

• The need to utilize the college’s counseling services when needed for at risk students was discussed.

• QCC support services for students who are speakers of English as a second language were discussed.

• Professor Howard Sporn updated the committee on his continuing work collecting information on QCC student awards and accomplishments.
The next committee meeting is scheduled for Wednesday April 1st, 2009 at 3:10 p.m. in the Medical Arts Building room 204.

The meeting was adjourned at 4:40 p.m.

Respectfully submitted,

Nadine Donahue
