1. I may attend Queensborough as a matriculated student if my visa class permits me to do so. The International Student Center (ISC) does not issue a change of status I-20 for B1/B2 status holders.
2. I am completely responsible for filling out my application with an attorney and tracking its progress through the USCIS Online Case Status System.
3. The ISC will review an applicant's financial documents and issue Form I-20 without assuming any other responsibility.
4. I am responsible for providing the ISC with copies of any USCIS notices I receive regarding my application.
5. If I decide to travel outside the United States before USCIS has adjudicated my application, my application is cancelled and my application fee is forfeit.
6. If my original authorized stay in the U.S. will expire prior to the adjudication of my change of status request, I must maintain the validity of my original status by filing a separate application extending the date of my original visa status.
7. If my change of status application is rejected, I will have accrued days of unlawful presence beginning the day after my original status expired and I may be subject to reentry bars
